> .Mr. Myburgh appeared for the defence. The Attorney General applied to have the denosition of Capt. Brewster put in evidence. His Lordship said that Capt. Brewster having absented himself without parmission, the Court would deal with him on his return to the colony. THOMAS PURDY, bourding officer of the Harbour Master's office, sworn. On the 27th April I went on board the Shin Chie, the Fusiyama was then lying outside the Fort William and the Olio in the centre of the harbor, I went in a boat nulled by five men. Akow was one of them: remained on board the Clip about half an hope. When ready to go away I looked over the side of the vessel for my boat and saw her coming up with a cargo boat. I saw two of the crew of my boat on board the cargo boat holding up some cotten. When they came up. I wont into my in charge of one of the water policemen. I saw that the boat was loaded with cotton, and some small packages of cotton were in it. Close to the stern of the theatre was crammed with Chinese, to whom | Commerce to be held in a few days, to propose | Cargo, boat there was loose cotton lying about. I do not know who is the owner of the boat. Chow Akum another of the harbour master's boatmen, corroborated last witness's evidence. Mr. J. M. VICKERS, Partner in Messrs Adam Scott & Co.'s, constable Dos Santos, Inspector DA SILVA, YOW ASING, Scott & Co.'s godownkeeper, and Ho Awan, shroff to Mosses Turner & Co. also gave testimony in support of the pro-

Mr. Myburgh having addressed the jury for the defence. His Lordship Jour summed up, and a verdict of Guilty was unamimonsly and immediately returned, and the prisoners were each sentenced to four years penal servitude. The case of Low-Bong ting charged with having counterfeit Rupces and Dollars in his posession was then proceeded with.

CENA SAWMER. an Indian constable, deposed was on duty in Queeo's Road about four o'clock on the afternoon of the 27th April, when I observed the prisoner proceeding at a rapid rate to the Westward, increasing his pace when he saw me approaching; be lind a bulky bundle with him. I followed and stonged bin. The prisoner said "No! No!" and threw the buildle at my fect and ran, away; I purshed and captured him, bringing him back to the bundle which I made him open, and found it to contain a number of Rupecs, some of which I sounded and found to be bad. I took him to the Charge Room, where in scarching the bundle we discovered besides 300 rupees, one hundred Dollars ulso counterfeit; two good Dollars and some broken silver were found in his purse. Cross-examined .- Prisoner did not see me before I saw him, What I stated at the Police Court was true: I did not say there that I retained my hold of the prisoner from the first. Lum Sing, shroff at the Police Court, proved that all the Coins were counterfeit that the Dollars were what are termed "skip copper dollars worth about ten cents, and "skin" rupces 4 or 5 towary to buy had dollars for ten cents. Shroffe do keep bad Dollars of various kinds for the purpose of teaching their pupils. I was taught to value a "skin dollar" at ten cents, hut I de not know that they are ever sold The prisoner's defence before the Magistrate wa but in in ovidence for the prosceution, which was that he had the day previous come down from Canton where he had collected the counterfeit coin from various places and brought them to Hongkong to try and sell them, but not to utter them as good.

Mr Myburgh for the defence contended the prisoner had been guilty of no offence against the law. That a very lucrative trade is carried on in Canton in selling bad dollars as counterfeit at their intrinsic value, and he would be able to prove that such was the manner in which the prisoner intended to dispose of them, and was unaware at the time that he was confuitting any offence. He called Lo-Bong-Pinga carpenter, who deposed : Pri soner is my brother and lives in Canton, this is the first time he has visited Hongkong. Prisoner is a collector and seller of Counterfein Coin, they are sold to shroffs to teach their pupils The judge having summed up, put the four following questions to the jury, lat. Had he in his possession more than 3 Counterfeit Runees ? meeting; it was a proof of the great interest Hall to the extent of $2,500 or five per cent 2nd. Had he in his possession more than 3 Counterfoit Dollars? 3rd. Had he in his pessession more than 3 Counterfeit Bupece and Dollars knowing them to be counterful? 4th. And if so had he them in his possession with intent to utter them? all of which they answered in the af- Hats, Aquatic Cork Hats, &c.

The case has still to be argued by the Attorney General and Mr. Myburg subject to the decision
